Subject: MonteAdriano officially opens 169 km of roads in Angola, in the amount of 70 million euros

Management of MonteAdriano, Engenharia e Construção, SA (MAEC) hereby announces the official opening, yesterday, in Angola, in the Province of Huambo, of 169 km of roads built by MAEC, in the amount of 70 million euros.

In attendance at the official opening was José Eduardo dos Santos, President of the Republic of Angola, who had not been to Huambo since 1992.

Roads officially opened:

Huambo - Caala

Huambo - Alto Hama

Huambo - Bailundo

Streets in the Province of Huambo

Just a reminder that in 2007, MonteAdriano Group's international sphere accounted for some 25% of turnover. Currently, the Group is present in Angola, Cape Verde, Morocco and Romania. The internationalization of the MonteAdriano Group is undoubtedly the main challenge for the next few years.
